Community Games Choir Champs!

by Adam

On the 16th of May in the Woodlands hotel in Adare, Milford NS school choir were finally recognised for all their hard work by being awarded 1st place in the Community Games competition. We sang two songs, Cantate Domino and Child of God. We were delighted with our performance and we sang our hearts out on the stage. The other choirs were really good too, so we were nervous, but we won first place and took home the gold! It feels great to be Community Games champs. Many thanks to our choir conductors Ms O'Meara, Ms. Murray and Ms. Reidy...and how lucky to win on Ms O'Meara's birthday!

Interview with Mr. Peter

Weatherhead

by Adam and Seth

We discovered, quite a while back through all our visits to UL over the years for swimming lessons, that Mr. Peter Weatherhead is a very interesting man. We decided to do a proper interview with him to find out more about his exciting life! Seth and Adam from the Gazette team asked the questions, while Mr. Gallagher filmed the interview in full. Check out the school website for the video!

Thanks again to Mr. Weatherhead for coming to visit us and answering all our questions so well.

Debate Team-Runners Up in County Final!

The team: Beth, Lauren, Daragh, Saoirse, Robert and Molly

On Thursday the 10th of June the debate team had their County Final debate against Kildimo NS. They did a great job proposing the motion, "War is always wrong, no matter what!" Unfortunately though, Kildimo also did a great job opposing the motion, and were announced winners. They all received beautiful trophies and Robert won Best Speaker on the day! They had a great time over the last few months debating and would like to thank their parents and teachers for supporting them! Well done!

Movie Review

Captain America Civil war

by Seth

Ok, I'm not going to tell you too much, but here's a summary of what happens.

When the United Nations decide that the Avengers have too much authority with no supervision, Then Maybe they should stand down. While Tony Stark (iron man) decides this is a good idea Captain America doesn't think so. After some avengers take different sides things begin to get UGLY!!

Here are the teams:

Captain America, Falcon, Scarlet Witch, Ant Man, Winter Soldier and Hawk Eye

V

Iron Man, WarMachine, Black Panther, Black Widow, The Vision and Spider Man

Over all this is one of my favourite Marvel movies
And I would rate it 9/10.

One of our Gazette journalists, Seth, interviewed the girls to find out how and why!

Seth: Hi girls, could you tell us what you have done for charity?

Kim: I cut off 14inches of my hair to give to a charity that makes wigs for children suffering from cancer.

Eve: I cut off 16inches of my hair for the same charity as Kim.

Seth: Where did you hear about this charity girls?

Eve: I saw it on TV a few months ago, on the Today show with Daithi and Maura!

Kim: I had been thinking about it for a couple of years and then Eve said she wanted to do it too. Eve gave me the courage to do it!

Seth: When did you do it?

Kim: I went into Bellissimo in Limerick on 31st May and they did it for me. They put lots of hair bobbins on my hair and then cut it. The bobbins stopped it from becoming tangled. They then put my hair into a brown bag, sealed it, and it was sent off in the post to the charity.

Eve: I had my hair cut in Marbles. It was the same process as Kim, except my hair was in a plait!

Seth: How did you feel after?

Eve: Weird, but I felt good, because it was a good cause.

Kim: I felt really happy!

Seth: How long were you growing your hair for before you cut it?

Kim: A few years!

Eve: Since I was 6 or 7.

Seth: Would you do it again?

Eve: Yes!

Kim: Yes, it made me feel so happy!

Seth: Well done girls! You are both wonderful and Milford NS is very proud of you both!!!!
